My Maison Pty. Ltd.

My Maison is an Australian-based company that designs and manufactures highly contemporary homeware products. Its aim is to provide customers with high quality, beautifully designed and affordable contemporary items. This mission is reflected in the wide range of manufacturers and materials with which it works, including ceramic, polystone, glassware, wood, bamboo, leather, stainless steel and brass. My Maison has continued to experience strong growth over the last few years with its long-term goal to carry on expansion of distribution services into North America, Asia and Europe.
