Umbra Ltd.

Umbra is a worldwide leader in casual, contemporary affordable design for the home. The company's products are available at more than 25,000 retailers in more than 75 countries. It designs and manufactures products for every room in the house, and items include picture frames, garbage cans, window treatments, kitchenware, tabletop and bathroom accessories, decorative hardware and furniture. The U+ Studio Collection, which offers a range of sophisticated aesthetics from raw to sleek, can be found exclusively at contemporary design retail specialists. Umbra began in 1979, when boyhood friends Paul Rowan and Les Mandelbaum joined forces to create exciting, everyday products that alter the overall aesthetic of the home.
