Inhesion Industrial Co., Ltd.

Inhesion is heading towards its 30th anniversary celebrations next year proud of the progress it has made since its foundation in 1979, having established an effective network of services in trading, distribution and design. Thanks to its strong manufacturing base and its reputation for trendy designs, the company continues to dedicate itself to bringing out exciting new collections every season. Among the designs being showcased at the fair is the new "Antique" collection under the GALLERY brand, in which Inhesion has blended contemporary design execution with historic elements.
