

Plustone Creative Group Co., Ltd

Established in 2005, Plustone's creative team has devoted itself to continually introducing new, innovative ideas to its two original brands, Dxion and Milife. In the designing process, the design team creates innovation out of daily life experiences. From product design and development to product execution and marketing, the company has built on a solid foundation to create a favourable brand image among its customers and set a high standard in monitoring and controlling product quality, bringing customers products of the best quality.