Syndica Technologies
International Co., Ltd

Founded in 2004, iloomi is a brand full of energy, a sense of humour and lots of fun. All the iloomi products are designed and manufactured in Taiwan by Syndica's in-house team. The company is keen to light up homes and boutiques throughout the world with fashionable iloomi products. Since the beginning of 2007, iloomi has become even richer, with new collections of home accessories, including the outdoor tea-light holder Prairie Lily, which was awarded the 2008 iF Product Design Award in Leisure/Lifestyle category. Syndica's motto is to make the world more inspiring with iloomi!
